PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Nominations are being accepted for the 2009 Petroleum Hall of Fame. This award recognizes men and women “who have made significant contributions to the industry in the Permian Basin, who have been examples of service and strength of character, and served as inspirations of present and future generations.”

Deadline for submitting nominations to Kathy Shannon, Executive Director of The Petroleum Museum, is September 15, 2008. Required material needed for a nomination include:

- A biography of the individual or team. This should cover the pertinent details of their life, the time and places of the activities for which they are proposed.
- A photograph of the candidate(s).
- Letters of support for the nomination from peers, family and community and industry leaders.
- A statement detailing the nominee’s importance to the petroleum industry, which includes specific examples of their impact in the Permian Basin.

Since 1968 when the first induction ceremony was held, 123 men and women have been elected to the Petroleum Hall of Fame. The honorees elected this year will be inducted at the Hall of Fame Dinner in April 2009.

For more information on the Petroleum Hall of Fame nomination criteria, contact Ms. Shannon at 432-683-4403.
